

FALL FAMILY FUN DAYS AND SPECIAL NEEDS RESOURCE FESTIVAL

SAVE the DATE: Sept. 22 & 23, 2012

Wolf Oak Acres Farm will kick off their season by hosting a Special Needs Charity weekend on Sept. 22 & 23. Open 10-5 on Saturday and Sunday, Wolf Oak Acres will be offering a discounted rate of $6 per person for special needs families to attend our farm festival. This includes: hayrides, cow train ride, hay maze, corn maze, duck derby, pig races, pedal carts, steer roping, corn crib and more; along with the resource fair. (Other attractions available at minimal fees: including - gem mining, corn cannons, slingshots, jumping pillow and concessions/gift shop).

A Special Needs Resource Fair located in our new barn facility will be held during this weekend. Organizations, vendors, suppliers, and wellness promoters geared to providing special need equipment, services, or provisions will be on hand to answer questions, demo, exhibit, and / or sell. A limited number of booths will be available on a first come/first serve basis. Non-profits wishing to set up will be free of charge – thanks to our sponsors. We ask for-profit vendors for a $30 weekend donation to cover rental expenses to promote your business. This event is open to the general public, as well as being promoted to all of our CNY special needs providers and their consumers via email, mailings, flyers, web, tv, radio and print advertising throughout CNY.
